Thanksgiving

In the book of Colossians, Paul mentions the word thankful or thanksgiving seven times, and this while in prison.

As we approach the Thanksgiving holiday, practice praying prayers of thanksgiving without asking God for anything. This could be an intentional time of 5 or 10 minutes a day, during your commute to work, before you read your Bible, or maybe while you're taking a short walk this week. From our salvation in Christ and what He's done, to the tangible, small things that God allows us to have and enjoy, this is a great way to give God the glory due His Name.

1. Do you already have a disciplined time of praying prayers of thanksgiving? If this is during your community group discussion, take a minute to go around the room and say what you are thankful for.
2. What are some things that prevent us from being thankful?
3. How can we have a new perspective that results in a spirit of thanksgiving?
4. Pastor Bill said that "thankfulness leads to singing." Do you enjoy singing to God, whether it's corporately at church, in your community group, in the car, or at home?
